Alesha Maury, ND

Naturopathic Doctor and Creator of the Equipped for Energy Wellness Reset

I help busy women struggling with fatigue, stubborn weight, brain fog, sleep problems, and hormone issues to recover, so they can enjoy their relationships, succeed in work, and pursue their passions. I love to help women get unstuck in their recovery, after years of trying, and finally reach their wellness goals. My approach includes mentoring clients through implementing the foundational pillars of health, such as nutrition, detoxification, lifestyle shifts, balancing hormones, and joyful movement. Uncovering and addressing the root causes of illness, and non-judgmental support, guidance, and accountability are a core part of my approach to client care.
